Mercury Stationary Retrograde in 06th House

The next three weeks could easily throw some kinks into your schedule and make your routine suddenly unroutine. You have the opportunity now to iron out the wrinkles that may have been bothering you but which were somehow still left unattended. You may be wise to put great leaps forward temporarily on the backburner until you are sure there is nothing to trip you up along your way when you make your moves. This may result in coming to some reconclusions about how and with whom you deploy your creative juices. Listen to that inner voice to make sure you heard it right, then get back into gear.

Mercury Stationary Direct in 06th House

Hectic reduplication, delays, and scheduling confusions will be straightening themselves out after a few weeks of necessary resorting. All that remains is to put the finishing touches on new approaches and link them all up with others who may be involved. Missed or mixed up messages are resent or clarified so everybody is back on the same page and agrees upon what the next step is going to be. A general sense of well-being supplants a certain unease born of uncertainty and you get back to your healthy glow born of knowing where you've been and focus on where you're going.

Just when you think you can enjoy the limelight, you have to turn around and put some more spin on your tale to satisfy the onlookers. That scenario can characterize the next three weeks when your image may need some polishing and you have to resolve differences of opinion on your status. But, a few stumbling blocks well attended to now will open up a path of clear sailing down the road. Part of this may be that you haven't really picked up the smaller stitches because you've not quite got the bigger picture in focus. Refocus, pull all the threads together, and then you're on your way.

The best-laid plans for self-promotion may have been getting tangled during the last three weeks, but the wind is changing and you'll begin to find it easier to chart your course, especially career wise. Correcting misconceptions about yourself is an important task to undertake, as you can't benefit if others don't really know where you're at. That especially applies where you are trying to nurture valuable connections that will buoy you up in weeks to come. When you make things perfectly clear, that's just what they become, and clearing up confusion clears the skies in general.

This is not the most ideal period to try for a loan or lean on other people's resources to get you through -- you may find that slow going and not terribly rewarding. If you can see it through on your own, do so, if only by recycling what you've got and waiting for a clearer picture of where things are going. Inner reconstruction beats buying on the open market -- when you bank with yourself, the interest rate can never be too high. Rekindling a relationship may be part of what sustains you -- look for the wind under your wings and you won't have to flap them so hard.

Mars Conjunct Jupiter (Retrograde)

Big plans that might have seemed right around the corner may require a bit more work before launching them, as Mars delays its anticipated lift to your Jupiter for a bit. This may at first spark some annoyance and frustration, but it's actually the gift of opportunity, as you'll find there were some kinks in your design that might have developed into fatal flaws if you had gone ahead without a second look. Now is the time to root out major power drains that could leave you tapped out once you really ramp up to speed. Weed out the reduplications and energy sinks so you get the bang for your buck that you intend.

Mars Conjunct Saturn (Retrograde)

Blockages and roadblocks that were tagged for the scrapheap may hang on a bit longer, as Mars retreats from your Saturn and the energy needed to make the push requires recharging. Part of the reason may be that you need to take a closer look at the difference between kicking out the jams and kicking out your foundations. When a new broom sweeps clean, it shouldn't sweep away the furniture as well, so spend some time making sure your supports remain when you finally dispense with the rest. Get rid of what holds you back, not what holds you together, and know the difference.

Mars Stationary Direct in 07th House

Allowing your partner(s) to take the helm may not have worked out so well recently, but be of good cheer, as the future looks brighter ahead. Your patience with others will begin to pay off as they get in tune with your efforts and you can genuinely share the mutual effort. This may require some decision-making and putting more of your eggs into a single basket to make a commitment strong enough to pay off. Focus on the few, not the many, but keep a watch eye out for those who will be of future value and keep their numbers in your back pocket for a rainy day.

Mars Conjunct Saturn

Mars returning to its trajectory over your Saturn is just the thing to break through old and stagnant barriers and get the ball rolling again. It also has the energy to kick out needed supports from under you, so look before you strike and be selective in what your new broom sweeps clean. A combination of force and staying power is ideal about now, so strive for a strong but steady hand. A watchmaker's precision powered by hydraulics is the goal, where you grind slow but exceeding small, an inexorable force clothed in subtlety and vision. Sure, you can do that.

10 Jan 2006 03:08 am 13°♏44' ♂♃♃

Mars Conjunct Jupiter

Mars using your Jupiter as a launch pad provides a lot of increasingly focused energy and impetus to your larger and more ambitious schemes. The trick is channeling it so it doesn't get away from you like a bucking bronco. Size up your situation and commit yourself to as much as you think you can handle but no more. It is better to pull back just a little from the edge than to topple over the brink because you misjudged. Because you are coming out of a slow retro period, it's better to rev up gradually until you're fully in control of what's under your hood.

The coming three weeks mark a period when not only hedging your bets but replacing your wagers may be just the right thing to do. When resources come up short, don't hesitate to reallocate them in order to provide yourself a firm foundation and a springboard to the future. Redesign with an eye toward giving yourself some extra padding, rather than relying on last-minute income to fill in the gap. Less is more when you streamline your operations, and that may include reshuffling the way you present yourself on a day-to-day basis, in order to become a better part of the flow of life around you.

Kinks, twists, and delays in financial matters are on their way out and a return to smoother sailing is in the works. Although delays may have been annoying, the resolutions they have brought will benefit you immediately and in the long run. Picking up loose ends and tightening your operation has lasting benefits, not only on your resources, but also on your opportunities to disseminate your ideas and expand your contacts and horizons. Any headway you may have lost is momentary and will be made up for by a smoother operation, a steadier course, and fewer distractions over the next several weeks. Tie up loose ends and be ready to move on to expanded horizons and a surer sense of your underpinnings.

During this period, what you want to hold on to and what you want to let go can be a recurrent issue. Not so much in the outer world, but rather the inner. The set of circumstances that really makes you feel at home and well supported emotionally and spiritually ask to be defined or, rather, redefined. Are you where you would like to be? Are your values abiding or shifting? What is your personal bottom line? As you address these questions, you may find yourself redefined and more secure from within and therefore better able to go after goals on the outside, especially in you interaction with others.

Venus Conjunct Moon (Retrograde)

Venus on pause as it touches your Moon may give you pause to reconsider how much your desires draw you into relationships, and how you can get more out of it. An open hand means an open heart, but glad handers can put a crimp in the joy of giving and being close. Take a look at who has the privilege of enjoying your company and make sure it's a two-way stretch. It's a period for emotional insight and selection, to separate true joy from simple fun, a time to learn to treasure what you really want and dispense with what gets in the way. Turn to the true, savor the sweet, know how to truly identify both.

Venus Stationary Direct in 03rd House

You may have found some difficulty lately getting what you want across to others, making your desires and wishes known in ways that are not misunderstood. A period of clarification is now underway, during which you can clear things up and get what you need from the immediate surroundings without having to repeat yourself so much. Partially, that's due to general happenstance, but equally important is putting your own thoughts in order and being sure of what you want, so you can ask for it clearly and effectively. When you are coming from a solid place inside, your follow-through will take care of itself.

Venus Conjunct Moon

Venus making its turn on your Moon adds breadth to the palette of your emotions and you can open up a range of subtle pleasures that might have been eluding you before. Feel free to respond just as you feel and don't hold back waiting for something better to come along. Loosen ties of inhibition and release inner tensions that might have held you back from admitting what it is you really want. You can't get what you don't admit to, so honesty is the best policy and will also have the effect of getting you out of situations you'd just as soon avoid.
